

Rolling Hills News

April 17, 2009

Starting Monday April 20th it's the...

ISAT

Make sure your child get's plenty of rest and a good breakfast. Rolling Hills is having another "Team Shirt" day next Friday, April 24th. Good luck Students. We are cheering for you.

Choir

This choir is open to those in grades 4-8 and will meet Mondays after school from 2:45-4:00. A variety of music will be used and we will culminate this activity with a spring performance! There is no fee associated with this activity. If interested please contact Mrs. Henbest at 939-5400.

Sewing Basics 101

This class will be offered on Thursdays from 2:45-3:45 for students in grades 3-8. In this class students will learn the basics of using an iron to press sewing projects. Students will learn hand embroidery stitches, cross stitch, and appliqué work. There is a $5.00 fee associated with this class. For more information please email blacarly2@q.com.

Young Rembrandts

This class will be offered on Wednesdays from 2:45-3:45 for students in grades K-6. The focus will be on Cartooning! There is a fee associated with this class. Please visit www.youngrembrandts.com for additional information.

Fit Club

This class will be offered on Tuesdays from 2:45-4:00 for students in grades 4-8. Parents are welcome to join if they like! We will focus on getting and staying healthy not only at school but at home as well. There is not a fee associated with this class. For more information please email meishakurtz@gmail.com.

Rolling Hills Girls

This class will be offered on Tuesday and Fridays from 2:45-3:45 for girls in grades 4th-7th. The focus of this club is about self-esteem, problem solving and healthy living. It combines running exercise with clever games and upbeat discussions. This class helps girls get out of their normal routine and get fit with friends. Please email Shannon at grumpyc0girl@yahoo.com. There is not a fee associated with this class.

Library News...

- 80 New books have been added to our great library collection this month
- Students may checkOut 2 books at a time. The check-out period is two weeks. Please return any overdue books
- The library will not be open on Friday, April 24th.
- The last library day will be May 22nd. No new books will be check-out and all books need to be turned in by this date.

Thanks again to the parents that helped get the library up and open for this year.

