

Eye Spy Newsletter

1/15/10

A big thank you to Grace for taking care of Hermie and The Herminator over the break!

A special thanks to Grace's mom, too. 😊

Citizen of the Week:

Jaron Nelson

Congratulations!!! 😊

Mystery Reader:

Mr. Scott, our 6th grade teacher

Fiction Book Report:

Those are due next Wednesday, Jan. 20th. The email that I sent out said Wednesday, Jan. 22nd. I was wrong on my dates. The book reports are really due on Wed.

This project will make up our final reading grade for the semester. Let me know if you have any questions!

This week in Class:

Science- we are studying solid, liquid and gas matter to go along with our Willy Wonka literature unit.

Language and Reading- The kids are loving the study of Willy Wonka and his magical chocolate world. They have been working hard to earn Wonka dollars so that they can buy a chocolate bar and perhaps earn a golden ticket!

Art: Once again our fabulous art parents have facilitated an awesome project! The kids made tiger masks from balloons, newspaper and starch. They just finished painting them on Tuesday. These fabulous masks will be on display on our hallway bulletin board.

Spelling List #17:

1. quite
2. quit
3. quiet
4. none
5. knew
6. know
7. remain
8. direction
10. direct
11. appear
12. liberty
13. enough
14. fact
15. board
16. September
17. station
18. attend
19. public
20. music
21. picnic
22. friend
23. friends
24. during
25. police

- 26. until
- 27. truly
- 28. true
- 29. whole
- 30. hole

Have a GREAT weekend!

Amy Phillips
3rd Grade Teacher
RHPCS

Amy Phillips
3rd Grade Teacher
RHPCS