

Dave Marczak

- Parent of 2 children currently attending RHPCS and a child starting kindergarten in the fall of 2012
- Co-Chair of the successful RHPCS “SOS” Fund Raising Campaign (2010-2011)
- Extremely active advocate and recruiter for RHPCS responsible for 8 new students
- TOPS Soccer / Idaho Youth Soccer Coach and parent volunteer for Challenger Little League
- Professional Business Development Executive with strong ties to the Eagle community
- Extensive business experience providing strategic thinking, planning, and executing tactics to support strategies in a team environment.
- Founding partner and investor in a multinational Biometrics Security Company that services Federal Government Agencies with classified anti-terrorism technologies in support of US forces. Dept. of Homeland Security, DOD and Federal Law Enforcement Agency contractor.

My goal is to contribute to the growth of Rolling Hills in a positive and constructive way.

The students and teachers are my priority, and they deserve to have advocates who put them first – above any extraneous influences. As a member of the Rolling Hills Board of Directors, I would not forget the awesome responsibility of championing and protecting the students and teachers.

Our family has had the honor of creating the Morton Language Learning Lab and contributing to the establishment of The Morton Library.