Position Information

What makes you a good candidate for the Rolling Hills Public Charter School Board?

I have been an active member of the RHPCS Board for 2 years, volunteered in classrooms and at various fundraisers and attended multiple Charter Commission meetings.

What is your area(s) of expertise?

I am a CPA with significant experience dealing with financial statements, business management and financing. I am also a parent of 2 gradeschool aged children.

How do you see yourself being a team player as a member of the RHPCS School Board?

I offer my opinions, respectfully listen to other members' opinions and based my ultimate position on what I consider to be the most appropriate course of action. I do not play politics or take sides.

What changes would you implement if elected to the board?

Continue to work toward full compliance with Charter Commission requests, and continuous improvement all around, although I do not view the current situation in need of significant change.
